CIGNA REPORTS SECOND QUARTER 2016 RESULTS, SOLID PERFORMANCE IN GLOBAL HEALTH CARE OFFSET BY PRESSURE IN GROUP DISABILITY AND LIFE

- Total revenues increased 5% to $10.0 billion in the second quarter
- Shareholders' net income for the second quarter was $510 million, or $1.97 per share
- o Adjusted income from operations¹ in second quarter was $515 million, or $1.98 per share
- o Strong free cash flow provides ongoing financial flexibility
- Projected adjusted income from operations per share^{1,2,3} is now estimated to be in the range of $7.75 to $8.10 in 2016

BLOOMFIELD, CT, July 29, 2016 – Cigna Corporation (NYSE: CI) today reported second quarter 2016 results with solid performance in the Global Health Care segment and lower than expected results in the Group Disability & Life segment.

Total revenues in the quarter were $10.0 billion, an increase of 5% over second quarter 2015, driven by continued growth in Cigna's targeted customer segments.

For the second quarter of 2016, shareholders' net income was $510 million, or $1.97 per share, compared with $588 million, or $2.26 per share, for the second quarter of 2015. Second quarter 2016 shareholders' net income included a special item² charge of $26 million after-tax, or $0.10 per share, for transaction costs related to Cigna's proposed combination with Anthem, while second quarter 2015 shareholders' net income included a special item² charge of $65 million after-tax, or $0.25 per share, related to costs associated with the early redemption of long term debt.

Cigna's adjusted income from operations¹ for second quarter of 2016 was $515 million, or $1.98 per share, compared with $664 million, or $2.55 per share, for second quarter of 2015.

"Cigna's second quarter financial results reflect solid performance in Global Health Care and Global Supplemental Benefits, with a current headwind in Group Disability and Life that pressured overall results." said David M. Cordani, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are taking a series of corrective actions to stabilize and improve Group Disability and Life results while we continue to focus on driving innovation and enhancing value for our customers and clients around the globe, and remain fully committed to our long-term growth objective."

- Second quarter 2016 premiums and fees increased 3% relative to second quarter 2015, driven by customer growth, specialty contributions, and rate actions in our Commercial employer group business, partially offset by expected reductions in Medicare Part D and Individual customers.
- The second quarter medical customer base totaled 15.1 million, including an increase of over 140,000 customers in 2016, driven by organic growth in our Middle Market, Select, International and Medicare Advantage segments.
- Second quarter 2016 adjusted income from operations¹ and adjusted margin, after-tax⁵ reflect strong contributions from our Commercial employer and specialty businesses, partially offset by medical cost pressure in our Individual business and costs related to our CMS audit response.

- Adjusted income from operations¹ for second quarter 2016 did not have a meaningful amount of net prior year reserve development, while second quarter 2015 and first quarter 2016 included favorable prior year reserve development on an after-tax basis of approximately $19 million and $14 million respectively.
- Second quarter 2016 also benefitted from $3 million after-tax in updates to 2015 ACA risk mitigation program accruals while second quarter 2015 benefitted from approximately $20 million after-tax in updates to 2014 programs.
- On a year to date basis, Cigna has recorded net receivables of $29 million, after-tax related to 2016 risk mitigation programs for our Individual business.
- The Total Commercial medical care ratio⁷ ("MCR") of 78.8% for second quarter 2016 reflects the ongoing strong performance of our Commercial employer group business, partially offset by higher medical costs in our Individual business.
- The Total Government MCR⁷ of 86.4% for second quarter 2016 reflects solid performance in our Medicare Advantage business and less prior year reserve development.
- Second quarter 2016 Global Health Care operating expense ratio⁷ of 20.9% reflects costs related to our CMS audit response as well as continued investments in strategic initiatives, partially offset by revenue growth.
- Global Health Care net medical costs payable⁸ was approximately $2.37 billion at June 30, 2016 and $2.11 billion at December 31, 2015.

Global Supplemental Benefits

This segment includes Cigna's global individual supplemental health, life and accident insurance business, primarily in Asia, and Medicare supplement coverage in the United States.

- Global Supplemental Benefits results continue to reflect the value created by affordable and personalized solutions delivered to individual consumers on a direct basis.
- Excluding the impact of foreign currency movements, second quarter 2016 premiums and fees grew 12% over second quarter 2015, reflecting continued business growth.
- Second quarter 2016 adjusted income from operations¹ and adjusted margin, after-tax⁵ reflect business growth with some offset from the unfavorable impact of foreign currency movements.

Group Disability and Life

This segment includes Cigna's group disability, life and accident insurance operations.

- The Group Disability and Life business significantly underperformed our expectations in the second quarter.
- Second quarter 2016 premiums and fees grew 3% relative to second quarter 2015, primarily driven by new sales and continued strong persistency.
- Second quarter 2016 adjusted loss from operations¹ and adjusted margin, after-tax⁵ reflect the continued impact of modifications to our disability claims management process implemented in the first quarter and poor life claim experience.
- Second quarter 2016 adjusted loss from operations¹ also includes an unfavorable after-tax impact related to life claim reserve studies of $17 million while second quarter 2015 adjusted income from operations¹ includes a favorable after-tax impact related to disability claim reserve studies of $37 million.

The foregoing statements represent the Company's current estimates of Cigna's 2016 consolidated and segment adjusted income from operations^{1,2} and other key metrics as of the date of this release. Actual results may differ materially depending on a number of factors. Investors are urged to read the Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements included in this release. Management does not assume any obligation to update these estimates.

This quarterly earnings release and the Quarterly Financial Supplement are available on Cigna's website in the Investor Relations section (http://www.cigna.com/aboutcigna/investors). Notes:

1. Adjusted income (loss) from operations is defined as shareholders' net income (loss) excluding the following after-tax adjustments: net realized investment results, net amortization of other acquired intangible assets and special items. Net amortization of other acquired intangible assets in 2015 included the one-time benefit of an acquisition in which the fair value of acquired net assets exceeded the purchase price. Special items are identified in Exhibit 2 of this earnings release.

Adjusted income (loss) from operations is a measure of profitability used by Cigna's management because it presents the underlying results of operations of Cigna's businesses and permits analysis of trends in underlying revenue, expenses and shareholders' net income. This consolidated measure is not determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP)and should not be viewed as a substitute for the most directly comparable GAAP measure, shareholders' net income. See Exhibits 1 and 2 for a reconciliation of adjusted income from operations to shareholders' net income.

- 2. Management is unable to provide a forward-looking reconciliation of adjusted income (loss) from operations to shareholders' net income for full year 2016 because future net realized investment results, net amortization of other acquired intangible assets and additional special items cannot be identified or reasonably estimated at this time.
- 3. The Company's outlook excludes the potential effects of any share repurchases or business combinations that may occur after the date of this earnings release.

- 4. The measure "consolidated operating revenues" is not determined in accordance with GAAP and should not be viewed as a substitute for the most directly comparable GAAP measure, "total revenues." We define consolidated operating revenues as total revenues excluding realized investment results. We exclude realized investment results from this measure because our portfolio managers may sell investments based on factors largely unrelated to the underlying business purposes of each segment. As a result, gains or losses created in this process may not be indicative of past or future underlying performance of the business. See Exhibit 1 for a reconciliation of consolidated operating revenues to total revenues.
- 5. Adjusted margin, after-tax, is calculated by dividing adjusted income (loss) from operations by operating revenues for each segment.
- 6. Prior period dental customers have been revised to conform to current presentation.
- 7. Operating ratios are defined as follows:
 - Total Commercial medical care ratio represents medical costs as a percentage of premiums for all commercial risk products, including medical, pharmacy, dental, stop loss and behavioral products provided through guaranteed cost or experience-rated funding arrangements in both the United States and internationally.
 - Total Government medical care ratio represents medical costs as a percentage of premiums for Medicare Advantage, Medicare Part D, and Medicaid products.
 - Global Health Care Operating Expense Ratio represents operating expenses excluding acquisition related amortization expense as a percentage of operating revenue in the Global Health Care segment.
- 8. Global Health Care medical costs payable are presented net of reinsurance and other recoverables. The gross Global Health Care medical costs payable balance was $2.58 billion as of June 30, 2016 and $2.36 billion as of December 31, 2015.
- 9. Cigna owns a 50% noncontrolling interest in its China joint venture. Cigna's 50% share of the joint venture's earnings is reported in Other Revenues using the equity method of accounting under GAAP. As such, the premiums and fees and policy counts for the Global Supplemental Benefits segment do not include the China joint venture.
- 10. Effective January 1, 2016, the Company adopted ASU 2016-09. Under this new guidance, companies recognize all income tax effects of stock-based compensation in shareholders' net income when awards vest or are exercised. Adopting this new guidance resulted in the Company recording $23 million of tax benefits in adjusted income from operations in the first quarter of 2016 that previously would have been reported in the Balance Sheet as additional paid-in capital.
- 11. Global medical customers include individuals who meet any one of the following criteria: are covered under a medical insurance policy, managed care arrangement, or service agreement issued by Cigna; have access to Cigna's provider network for covered services under their medical plan; or have medical claims and services that are administered by Cigna.

NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release, and oral statements made with respect to information contained in this release, may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forwardlooking statements are based on Cigna's current expectations and projections about future trends, events and uncertainties. These statements are not historical facts. Forward-looking statements may include, among others, statements concerning our projected adjusted income (loss) from operations outlook for 2016, on both a consolidated and segment basis; projected total revenue growth and global medical customer growth, each over year end 2015; projected medical care and operating expense ratios and medical cost trends; future financial or operating performance, including our ability to deliver personalized and innovative solutions for our customers and clients and future growth, business strategy, strategic or operational initiatives; economic, regulatory or competitive environments, particularly with respect to the pace and extent of change in these areas; financing or capital deployment plans and amounts available for future deployment; our prospects for growth in the coming years; statements regarding the proposed merger between Cigna and Anthem, Inc. (Anthem); statements regarding the timing of resolution of the issues raised by CMS; and other statements regarding Cigna's and Anthem's future beliefs, expectations, plans intentions, financial condition or performance. You may identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as "believe," "expect," "plan," "intend," "anticipate," "estimate," "predict," "potential," "may," "should," "will" or other words or expressions of similar meaning, although not all forwardlooking statements contain such terms.

Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, both known and unknown, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: our ability to achieve our financial, strategic and operational plans or initiatives; our ability to predict and manage medical costs and price effectively and develop and maintain good relationships with physicians, hospitals and other health care providers; the impact of modifications to our operations and processes, including those in our disability business; our ability to identify potential strategic acquisitions or transactions and realize the expected benefits of such transactions; the substantial level of government regulation over our business and the potential effects of new laws or regulations, or changes in existing laws or regulations; the outcome of litigation, regulatory audits, including the CMS review and sanctions, investigations and actions and/or guaranty fund assessments; uncertainties surrounding participation in government-sponsored programs such as Medicare; the effectiveness and security of our information technology and other business systems; and unfavorable industry, economic or political conditions, including foreign currency movements; the timing and likelihood of completion of the proposed merger, including the timing, receipt and terms and conditions of any required governmental and regulatory approvals for the proposed merger that could reduce anticipated benefits or cause the parties to abandon the transaction; the possibility that the expected synergies and value creation from the proposed merger will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; the risk that the businesses of Cigna and Anthem will not be integrated successfully; disruption from the proposed merger making it more difficult to maintain business and operational relationships; the risk that unexpected costs will be incurred; the possibility that the proposed merger does not close, including due to the failure to satisfy the closing conditions; the risk that financing for the proposed merger may not be available on favorable terms, as well as more specific risks and uncertainties discussed in our most recent report on Form 10-K and subsequent reports on Forms 10-Q and 8-K available on the Investor Relations section of www.cigna.com as well as on Anthem's most recent report on Form 10-K and subsequent reports on Forms 10-Q and 8-K available on the Investor Relations section of www.antheminc.com. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made, are not guarantees of future performance or results, and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict or quantify. Cigna undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forwardlooking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by law.
