

In the blink of an eye, you went from being a kid to being called sir or ma'am. For the first time you are taking care of yourself.

Most young singles think they don't need life insurance, but they do.

Now's the time to purchase life insurance, while you're young and healthy, because you may not qualify later when you need it.

You should consider buying life insurance if you help support a family member or plan to in the future, if you're carrying significant debt with co-signers, or if you've purchased your first home. Life insurance from CIGNA can help make sure your family won't pay for your debts should the unthinkable happen.

Life insurance from CIGNA can also help pay funeral expenses, which can total more than $10,000.¹ Our life insurance plans include the following additional support:

CIGNAssurance[®] provides your family with:

- Bereavement counseling with certified specialists
- Financial information from experienced professionals
- Legal consultation services

CIGNA's Will Preparation Program offers access to a robust website that helps you build state-specific customized wills and other legal documents. Automatically included with Term Life and GUL, this program includes the preparation of:

- Last will and testament
- Health care power of attorney
- Living will
- Durable/financial power of attorney
