

Cigna Named to Dow Jones Sustainability Indices; Takes Top Spot in Its Sector

BLOOMFIELD, Conn., 08 September, 2017 - Cigna (NYSE:CI) has been named to the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (DJSI), with recognition from the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index (DJSI World) and the Dow Jones Sustainability North America Index (DJSI North America). Cigna's score of 78 placed the company in the leading position within the Health Care Providers & Services industry sector, where the industry average score was 35. Cigna scored in the 95th percentile in its industry for the Environmental Dimension and in the 100th percentile in its industry for the Economic and Social Dimensions.

"Cigna is proud to be recognized for living our mission and values and meeting the needs and expectations of our stakeholders through our Cigna Connects corporate responsibility platform," said Mary Tullis Engvall, Cigna Corporate Responsibility Manager.

Launched in 1999 as the first global sustainability benchmarks, the DJSI are tradeable indices and serve as benchmarks for investors who integrate sustainability considerations into their portfolios and provide an effective engagement platform for companies who want to adopt sustainable best practices.

The world's 3,800 largest companies are invited to take part in the Dow Jones assessment, which consists of questions that address financially material sustainability information.
