

David Kobus Named Market President for Cigna's Tri-State Market

NEW YORK, 07 June, 2017 - Cigna (NYSE: CI) has named David Kobus as Market President for its Tri-State market, giving him direct oversight of Cigna's business in New York, New Jersey and Southern Connecticut.

Kobus joins Cigna after a decade at Aetna, where he most recently served as executive director for the New York market. Kobus' responsibilities at Cigna include further strengthening the company's position as a differentiated health service partner that helps health care professionals deliver better outcomes, improves affordability and provides meaningful experience to its local customers and clients. He is also responsible for driving profitable growth for the organization through direct oversight of Cigna's people, strategy, structure and processes.

"David is a great addition to the Cigna team," said Michael Triplett, President, U.S. Markets for Cigna. "He's an experienced industry veteran and highly motivational leader who immediately strengthens Cigna's ability to deliver on our mission of improving the health, well-being and sense of security of the people we serve."

Kobus earned a bachelor's degree in business and finance from the University of Albany.
