

Prescription Drug List Changes

Beginning March 1, 2017

Beginning March 1, 2017,* the medications listed below won't be covered on Cigna's Prescription Drug List.

If you're using one of these medications, you should talk with your doctor about how this change may affect you. There may be alternative prescription medications or over-the-counter medicines (those that don't need a prescription) available to treat your condition.
