

Discrimination is against the law

Cigna Healthcare® complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, ancestry, religion, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or sexual stereotypes.

Cigna Healthcare does not exclude people or treat them less favorably differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, ancestry, religion, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or sexual stereotypes.

Cigna Healthcare:

- Provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English in a timely manner, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services or language assistance services, contact the Civil Rights Coordinator.

If you believe that Cigna Healthcare has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, ancestry, religion, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or sexual stereotypes, you can file a grievance with the Civil Rights Coordinator
